

Immediate Past President and Nomination Committee Chair

Ann Horton, MS

E-mail: ahorton@collcomm.org

Ms. Horton has over 18 years experience in health care and health communications. She has an M.S. in Health Care Administration and a B.S. in Journalism. Ms. Horton joined MWPHA in 2006 and served a 2-year term as President from 2007-2009. In 2007 Ms. Horton started Collaboration Communication, LLC, a consulting firm providing a wide-range of marketing and communication services for health care, public health, and non-profit organizations.

Clients have included The World Bank; National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute; Agency for Health Care Research and Quality; Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine; American Institutes for Research; Hearts & Homes for Youth, Adventist Health Care; and The Hepatitis Foundation International. Ms. Horton works at home in Silver Spring, Maryland where she lives with her husband and two daughters.